Blue Federal Credit Union Announces CU Rockstar, Jason Buchanan

MADISON, Wis., and CHEYENNE, Wyo.,— Jason Buchanan of Blue Federal Credit Union is among 25 credit union professionals and board members named as a 2022 Credit Union Rock Stars by the editorial team of Credit Union Magazine.

Now in its tenth year, the Credit Union Rock Stars program recognizes outstanding credit union professionals and directors from a wide range of disciplines who use their unique strengths to advance the missions of their credit unions. This year's winners were selected for their exceptional creativity, innovation, and passion.

Buchanan works as the Chief Credit & Risk Officer at Blue in Cheyenne Wyoming. His story appears on CUNA News, a website published by Credit Union National Association (CUNA).

"The 10th class of Credit Union Rock Stars demonstrates once again that our movement is filled with those who invent, innovate, and most importantly inspire," says Michelle Willits, Credit Union Magazine publisher. "Our Rock Stars represent small to large credit unions nationwide and work in operations, leadership, and board roles. We are proud to present this year's class, brought to you by Fiserv."

"We are in an industry that has so many talented individuals that give so much of their time, talent and treasure. For Jason to be acknowledged by CUNA, shows just how much he goes above and beyond every day," said Kim Alexander, Chief Strategy Officer at Blue. "We are so glad Jason is a part of Blue where he addresses challenges with determination and is always looking to discover pathways to possibilities for our members."

Credit Union Rock Stars will be profiled in a special digital issue of Credit Union Magazine. Check out all the winners and read their stories at news.cuna.org/rockstar.
